in an increasingly interconnected world wine market evolving consumer demands technologies and climate have all contributed to large shifts in global patterns of production and consumption of wine these shifting patterns of wine production and consumption have entailed changes in the vineyard in terms of total area planted production practices and the mix of grape varieties grown in this book for the first time we have a detailed empirical picture country by country and region by region within countries of which varieties of grapes have been grown where and how those varietal choices have changed over time this statistical compendium will be directly useful for anyone interested in knowing about and understanding the changing patterns of production of wine and wine grapes around the world it also will serve as an invaluable resource for economists and others who seek to analyze those patterns and their causes alcohol consumption goes to the very roots of nearly all human societies different countries and regions have become associated with different sorts of alcohol for instance the beer culture of germany the wine culture of france japan and saki russia and vodka the caribbean and rum or the moonshine culture of appalachia wine is used in religious rituals and toasts are used to seal business deals or to celebrate marriages and state dinners however our relation with alcohol is one of love hate we also regulate it and tax it we pass laws about when and where it is appropriate we crack down severely on drunk driving and the united states and other countries tried the failed noble experiment of prohibition while there are many encyclopedias on alcohol nearly all approach it as a substance of abuse taking a clinical medical perspective alcohol alcoholism and treatment the sage encyclopedia of alcohol examines the history of alcohol worldwide and goes beyond the historical lens to examine alcohol as a cultural and social phenomenon as well both for good and for ill from the earliest days of humankind
